Rosh Hashana Message from Rabbi Peretz Robinson

Dear Friends,

As the High Holy Days season approaches, and we begin to once again renew our Jewish commitment, it gives me great pleasure to reach out to you and share with you some of the exciting programs and services that have been taking place in your shul.

With our commitment to prayer, Torah study, and chessed, Congregation Ahavath Achim continues to serve as a beacon of Jewish values, lighting up the entire southern Connecticut region.

With thanks to the Almighty, our daily minyan continues to remain vibrant and strong. We meet daily for Shacharit morning services on the campus of Jewish Senior Services, 4200 Park Avenue in Bridgeport. If you do not already join us for services, please consider doing so. We meet at 6:45 on weekday mornings, 8 a.m. on Sundays, and 9:30 on Shabbat mornings. Additionally, we continue to hold afternoon and evening Shabbat services at the Risch residence, 255 Sky Top Terrace, Fairfield. We are very grateful to the Risch family for continuing to host our Friday night and Saturday night services.

In addition, our congregation continues to provide meaningful Torah study opportunities, for both the beginner as well as the adept scholar. We have a Talmud class in the shul on Tuesday mornings following services, as well as a Tanach (Hebrew Bible) class on Friday mornings following services. We meet together to study on Shabbat afternoons, either before Mincha or after Mincha, depending on the season. Additionally, we have one-on-one Torah study opportunities that are available, so please be in touch with me if there is a specific topic that you are interested in studying and are looking for a "chavruta" with which to study.

Finally, this past year saw the occurrence of numerous successful social programs in our shul, most notably our festive Purim dinner, as well as our informative Sunday morning brunch lecture. We look forward to bringing you additional programming over the course of the following year.

It is a great privilege for me to serve as the rabbi of this historic congregation. I look forward to serving you in the future, and to seeing you in the shul this High Holy Day season as we beseech the Almighty together for life, happiness, health, sustenance, and forgiveness.

Wishing you a joyous and sweet new year,

Rabbi Peretz Robinson

Presidium Message

Thanks to our officers and members, our Ahavath Achim family continues to function together as a viable, strong community and congregation. We are still davening at JSS together with Agudath Achim as well as with Bikur Cholim at their synagogue.

We are grateful to Sharon and Harvey Risch who, have again graciously opened their home for davening at various times and for meetings of the congregation. And to Joe and Diana Rich Schwartz who have made their home available to our executive committee and to our board for meetings.

We have welcomed to Fairfield, with his family, Rabbi Peretz Robinson whom we have engaged as our part-time Rabbi. They are living at 84 Senior Place, the official address of our congregation.

Thanks to Harvey and Sharon Risch we came together at JSS for a special event, a very interesting speaker. Our thanks also to the Loeser family for donating the cost of the brunch at this event.

We look forward to another meaningful year together and wish everyone a VERY HAPPY HEALTHY NEW YEAR.

Terry Augenbraun and Sara Klein, Presidium
