Journal Brunch this Sunday, August 6th

Warmest thanks to everyone who has participated in this year's ad Journal honoring Barbara and Peter Tuckel with the 2017 Bezalel Builders Award. This past week, we are pleased to have added Alan Gorenstein, Shai Harmelech and Toby Shaffer to our wonderful group of supporters. This year's Journal ad book has gone to the printer for publication. We thank Susan Klein for her wonderful preparation and editing to make this one of our nicest Journals. Now we excitedly look forward to the delicious catered brunch planned for Sunday morning. Our guest speaker will be Rebbetzyn Debra Kapnick, of Passaic, NJ, a former Ahavath Achim member and a dear friend of the Tuckels. We are glad to announce we are fully subscribed. No walk-ins please!

Building Cleanup & Disposal Campaign

Once again, a reminder that all your personal items need to be removed from the coat room or anywhere else in the building no later than August 15. We now have a professional cleanup crew working daily to haul away all the property no longer usable or needed. It's very costly and if you can help by taking boxes of books to the Pequot Library that would save the books and also save us money. There are approximately 10 boxes with books in good condition packed and waiting for transport to the library.

IMPORTANT: Please do not remove any items from anywhere in the synagogue without checking with Sara Klein or Elaine Schiller first. We are selling whatever items we do not need that are in good condition. The long white tables are available for $10. The stackable and folding chairs are available free for a donation to the Rabbi's Discretionary Fund. The pictures gracing the synagogue walls are available for purchase $100 each. If there is anything else you may be interested in, please contact Sara Klein or the shul office. Everything is available for a donation to the Rabbi's

Discretionary Fund.
